SYNOPSIS

A single mother's courage is tested when she resorts to desperate measures to hide her illegitimate child from her parents.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

Until Tomorrow is a study of the millennial generation and how they are reexamining the value system not only in Iran but also in so many other countries. The odyssey of Fereshteh takes us under the skin of the Iranian capital, Tehran, to understand how the youth have gained the courage and confidence to question the traditional ways of life and break away from patriarchy. By portraying complex characters, I fill the story with an authentic real-life tension that makes the audience feel the urgency and implications of the situations that Fereshteh finds herself in.

DIRECTOR'S BIOGRAPHY AND FILMOGRAPHY

Born in Iran, Ali Asgari is a prominent Iranian cinema figure with more than 200 awards to his name. Two of his shorts were nominated for Palme d'Or at Festival de Cannes and The Baby was in short film competition of Venice Film Festival 2014. Ali's films are concerned with precarious lives who live at society's margin in his native country Iran. His debut film Disappearance was developed at the Cinefondation Residency of Festival De Cannes and had its world and North American premiere at Venice International Film Festival and Toronto Film Festival 2017. Ali is a member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, and Until Tomorrow is his second feature film.
